Green Salad

These savory pastry pies were referenced in the first French cookbook, written by Guillaume Tirel, famously known as Taillevent, in 1392. In the 19th century, these meat pies were savored by the crystallerie and industry workers as a late morning "casse-croûte". Chef Kreuther has revisited this regional staple rooted in tradition to create an homage to the craftsmanship and history of Baccarat.

A limited number of these pies will be available daily from 4pm.

BABA FOR TWO 48

Aged Rum, Whipped Vanilla Mascarpone, Gold Leaf

Recommended Paired with Louis XIII 210 / 1 OZ

Recommended Paired with Hennessy Paradis Imperial 198/ 1 OZ

Our classic baba served tableside with your choice of spirit. The baba has been attributed to the Alsace-Lorraine region, near to the home of Baccarat, where lore tells of traditional kougelhoph cake first being soaked in wine.

It was frequently served as one of the favorite desserts in Versailles.
